CONNECT

Connecting is all about feeling and being POSITIVE and CAN DO!

A tool that we like to equip ourselves with is the "I CAN" tool.

This tool supports with both "I CAN" actions and "I CAN" language

I CAN

BUILDING A CONNECTION WITH ALL CUSTOMER TYPES IS IMPORTANT.
THEY ALL APPRECIATE A "CAN DO!" ATTITUDE AND "CAN DO!" ACTIONS.

"I CAN" ACTIONS

Take a deep breath.

Root your feet firmly to the floor.

Stand up straight.

Listen carefully to what your customer is requesting.

Show concern;
you may even choose to frown.

Once their request is clear, move quickly:
either retrieve what they requested or take them to the correct section of the store.

"I CAN" LANGUAGE

Use positive language... and speak optimistically and confidently and stay in solution mode...

"Yes!"

"Sure!"

"Of course I can..."

"No problem at all".

"I would love to..."

"I don't know the answer to that;
however, our product expert, Juan,
will be more than happy to help!"

POWER POSE

From the "I CAN ACTIONS" practice and share your power pose in order to establish a confident stance for yourself whilst engaging with customers

CURIOUS

Being CURIOUS involves asking GREAT questions. A that we like to equip ourselves with is “DISCOVER Questions”. This tool supports with OPEN and PROBING questions

You will can use BOTH types of questions with your team members and customers in store. Let’s look at some examples of OPEN and PROBING QUESTIONS you can use with customers in store.

DISCOVER QUESTIONS

TO DISCOVER THE MOST INFORMATION, WE CAN ASK TWO TYPE OF QUESTIONS:

OPEN QUESTIONS: THESE CANNOT BE ANSWERED WITH A “YES” OR A “NO”;

PROBING QUESTIONS: THESE BUILD UPON WHAT YOU HAVE ALREADY DISCOVERED AND AIM TO DIVE DEEPER INTO WHAT YOU HAVE HEARD.

OPEN QUESTIONS

- “Who are you shopping for today?”
- “What do you need from your shoes?”
- “Where will you wear them?”
- “How versatile do you need your jacket to be?”
- “What has your experience with your current jacket been like?”
- “How do you want to feel when wearing this jacket?”
- “Which product features are most important to you?”
- “How do you feel in these pants?”
- “How will you use your duffel bag?”

OPEN QUESTIONS

Create a list of x5 open questions, ask for feedback from a team member, now practice these open questions (if appropriate) with customers

PROBING QUESTIONS

- “What’s most important to you?”
- “Can you tell me more?”
- “What do you like the most about your current jacket?”
- “Which colour do you prefer?”
- “How important is water resistance to you?”
- “What do you think of this style?”
- “Is this what you had in mind?”
- “How long have you been planning to do this trail?”
- “What is your main concern when outdoors?”
- “What alternatives have you considered?”
- “How does this look/sound/feel to you?”

PROBING QUESTIONS

Create a list of x5 probing questions, ask for feedback from a team member, now practice these probing questions (if appropriate) with customers

CHAMPION

Champion is all STORYTELLING about our heritage, products, community and locality. A tool that we like to equip ourselves is “The 3 S’s of story telling”. This tool supports with story telling.

You will be sharing our stories along with your team members and we encourage our customers to share theirs too! It’s important to us that these stories are 2 way, brief and easily passed to others!

THE 3 S’S OF STORYTELLING

THERE MAY NOT ALWAYS BE A CHANCE TO OFFER A LONG, DETAILED STORY.
INSTEAD, WE FOLLOW THE 3 S’S APPROACH.

SHARE

The BEST stories are those shared by our customers.
Use OPEN and PROBING questions to DISCOVER our customers’ stories about their interests, travels and hobbies. It’s often appropriate to share your personal stories too.

SHORT

We should be able to tell our stories in under a minute!

STICKY

Any stories you share should be able to be easily shared with others. We want our customers to be able to “spread the word” about The North Face using the stories you have told them.

TEAM STORY

During your shift today, from the team members instore, ask them their favourite TNF sticky Story
